

Online Training Terms & Conditions

1. www.autismonlinetraining.com is operated for and on behalf of The National Autistic Society (also referred to as “us” or “we”).
2. These terms and conditions relate to all matters pertaining to access and use of resources and materials hosted on the Learning Management System located at www.autismonlinetraining.com hereinafter known as “the LMS”.
3. Any person or organisation accessing or using the LMS by way of being an account holder is hereinafter known as “the customer” or “you”.
4. By creating an account on the LMS and purchasing the use of specific materials you are accepting these terms and conditions and this constitutes the contract between The National Autistic Society and you.
5. In any matter of dispute, you agree that The National Autistic Society is the final arbiter.
6. All resources and materials made available through access or use of the LMS are the property of The National Autistic Society by whom all local and international rights are owned and reserved.
7. You agree not to breach the intellectual property rights, in any way, relating to the resources made available through the LMS.
8. You acknowledge and agree that copyright and all other intellectual property rights in the materials shall remain vested in us and you will not acquire any title copyright or other proprietary rights in such materials.
9. You understand that material presented in good faith by us is intended to promote best known practice but that it is the responsibility of the customer to make its own judgement as to the use of any material presented.
10. No video, flash or other material made available on the LMS by us may be downloaded, copied, saved, duplicated, stored, archived, held and or used in any way other than as intended. To do so is a breach of copyright, and it is our policy to pursue all such breaches. For clarity however, any PDF documents may be printed as may your own notes.
11. Access to the materials made available on the LMS is only through appropriately paid for formats. To do otherwise, in any way, is an infringement of our rights.
12. Each individual purchase permits one user to make use of the material. If access is required for more than one user, multiple purchase of each product is required for the appropriate number of users.
13. For bulk purchases, discounts will only be applied if paying following issue of a tailored invoice. Anyone purchasing directly on the LMS will require to pay the full price unless they have access to a discount code, no matter of volume.

14. For customers paying following issue of a tailored invoice, access will only be granted with evidence of payment cleared in The National Autistic Society account.

15. Accepting these terms and conditions means you accept that no refund, credit or similar will be made by or on behalf of The National Autistic Society for any reason whatsoever after payment has been authorised electronically or cleared if not paid electronically

16. You acknowledge that you are responsible for ensuring you have the technical requirements and computer literacy to make use of materials purchased. We are in no way responsible for any matters that arise from this point.

17. The LMS is managed on our behalf by Learning Pool. They provide basic assistance in relation to access to the materials, and information on how to make contact is available on the LMS. You should contact us if the assistance relates to the content or the provision of the service.

18. From date of first use, you will have six months access to the learning materials.

19. The National Autistic Society reserves the right to alter these terms and conditions from time to time to ensure we provide the best possible service and protect our rights. The most up to date terms and conditions can always be found on our website at www.autismonlinetraining.com and any use of the website after an alteration has been posted thereon will be deemed your acceptance of the terms and conditions as varied.